

IOWSCB Training Course Missing, Exploited and Trafficked Children (Level 3)

16th January 2018

9.30 – 16.30

Innovation Centre, Newport

Training Session for all frontline practitioners who are working predominantly with children, young people and/or their parents/carers, and have particular responsibilities for safeguarding and child protection.

Presented by Simon Snell, former Detective Inspector, Child Exploitation Unit, Devon and Cornwall Police.

Description:

The aim of this course is to provide the participants with a greater understanding of Child Sexual Exploitation, Child Trafficking and Children who go Missing. This knowledge will increase the ability of those working in safeguarding to identify the risks, potential victims and those already subjected to CSE. It will also increase the ability of those working in safeguarding to identify those at risk of Child Trafficking, respond to incidents and follow the referral process for Child Trafficking. The ultimate aim is to reduce the harm caused to children through CSE and Child Trafficking.

Learning Outcomes:

- To understand what CSE and Child Trafficking is by exploring the definitions and component parts
- To understand the vulnerabilities and be able to identify the warning signs
- To acquire an insight into the psychology of CSE and the grooming process
- To understand and identify the models, to include both external and internal trafficking
- To gain an insight into the psychology of why perpetrators of CSE might offend
- To explore the costs, challenges, myths and barriers to disclosing CSE
- To explore the recent statistics and research regarding the extent of Child Trafficking
- To identify those most vulnerable to Child Trafficking and the indicators which may show that a child is already a victim
- To know the processes of referral at a local level from a child protection perspective, including how the National Referral Mechanism works and its implications
- To gain an understanding of the legislation, benefits of disruption and early intervention
- To understand the harm caused to victims, their families and society

Course Attendance Fees:

The IOWSCB offer free training to their partner agencies. In the case of non-attendance or cancellation within 48 hours of an event a fee of £120 will be incurred. This fee will be waived if a suitable delegate is sent instead.

How to Book:

IOWSCB bookings should be made by using the application form found on the Training and Events page of the IOWSCB website (www.iowscb.org.uk).

We advise bringing your lunch with you as there are no catering facilities/cafes in the immediate vicinity of the Innovation Centre. Tea/coffee/water will be provided.