Statement of intent

Wroxall Primary believes in encouraging the use of guest speakers and external agencies to enrich the learning experience of its pupils. However, the school actively scrutinises speakers and agencies to ensure that they do not contradict the ethos of the school or conflict with the legal framework outlined in the Prevent duty.

The school fully supports freedom of speech and is aware of the broad range of views and ideas that are needed in the course of a pupil's development. It will endeavour to provide pupils with a balanced view of events, ideas and beliefs.

1. Legal framework

1.1. This policy has due regard to all relevant legislation and statutory guidance including, but not limited to, the following:

- Children Act 2004
- Education Act 2011
- DfE (2020) 'Keeping children safe in education'
- DfE (2018) 'Working Together to Safeguard Children'
- DfE (2015) 'The Prevent duty: Departmental advice for schools and childcare providers'
- DfE (2013) 'Tackling extremism in the UK: report by the Extremism Taskforce
- HM Government (2011) 'Prevent Strategy'

1.2. This policy operates in conjunction with the following school policies:

- Child Protection and Safeguarding Policies
- Lettings Policy

2. Ethos

2.1. The school does not tolerate any person who intentionally or unintentionally demeans individuals and groups defined by their ethnicity, race, religion, sexuality, gender, disability, age or lawful working practices.

2.2. The school does not tolerate any speech that gives rise to an environment where people experience, or could reasonably fear, harassment, intimidation or violence.

2.3. The school does not accept the use of offensive or intolerant language by guest speakers.

- 2.4. The school values freedom of speech and opinion, but recognises that, in the interest of the whole learning community, this must exist within formal guidelines.
- 2.5. The school recognises that extremism and exposure to extremist beliefs can lead to poorer outcomes for pupils and can jeopardize their well-being. The school aims to use the power of education to counteract extremism through the promotion of fundamental British values, such as tolerance, acceptance and freedom of speech.
- 2.6. The school is aware that pupils may sometimes express views or ideas that are discriminatory, prejudiced or extremist. All members of staff have been trained to deal with these instances appropriately and proportionally.

3. Assessing suitability

- 3.1. According to the Prevent duty, schools have a responsibility to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism; this includes violent and non-violent extremism, which can create an atmosphere conducive to terrorism, and can popularise views which terrorists exploit.
- 3.2. The school is a safe space where children can understand and discuss sensitive topics, including terrorism and the extremist ideas that are part of terrorist ideologies.
- 3.3. Before inviting an external agency or guest speaker, the school conducts background research into the relevant parties, ensuring that:
 - Any messages communicated to pupils support fundamental British values.
 - Any messages communicated to pupils do not seek to glorify criminal activity or any form of extremism.
 - The group or person is not attempting to narrow the views of pupils through extreme or narrow views of faith, religion, culture or ideology.
 - The subject matters being raised are appropriate for the specific age group.
- 3.4. All members of staff actively attempt to strengthen pupils' abilities to engage in informed debate. The school believes that the best way to combat extremism and intolerance is to empower pupils to challenge these views in an active and constructive manner. This is promoted through relationships education.
- 3.5. The headteacher makes the final decision as to the suitability of any guest speaker or external group.
- 3.6. The headteacher has the right to request a transcript from the speaker prior to any speech being made.
- 3.7. Other than safeguarding issues, there are several other factors that are considered when evaluating the suitability of a guest speaker or external group. The school considers whether:

- The visit will add value to the pupils' learning experiences.
- The speaker or group has the expertise in the subject they are delivering.
- The planned activities meet the health and safety guidelines.
- The individual or group has appropriate DBS clearance, if required.
- Relevant references have been provided and checked, if required.

4. During the visit

- 4.1. The headteacher or a senior member of staff is present during the speech or group activity, to oversee that the relevant guidelines are followed.
- 4.2. Intervention is considered if the member of staff feels it is necessary.
- 4.3. Any reasons for intervention are recorded for future reference.

5. Balanced presentation

- 5.1. Improving the spiritual, moral, social and cultural (SMSC) development of children, the school offers a balanced presentation of opposing views.
- 5.2. The school ensures a balanced approach through:
 - Discussions in class.
 - Presentations by staff.
 - Assigning homework to pupils.
 - Other methods deemed appropriate by the headteacher.
- 5.3. The final decision as to whether the subsequent learning activities carried out after the visits have been balanced will be made by the headteacher.
- 5.4. 'Partisan views' are defined as one-sided political viewpoints.
- 5.5. 'Political views' are defined as ideas expressed:
 - To further the interests of a political party.
 - To procure changes to the laws of this or another country.
 - To procure the reversal of government policy or decisions of governmental authorities in this or another country.

6. Policy review

- 6.1. This policy is reviewed every two years by the DSL, headteacher and the governing body.
- 6.2. The scheduled review date for this policy is January 2023.
